

TURN CHOCOLATE SANTAS INTO THE REAL ST. NICHOLAS!

MATERIALS

- Foil covered chocolate Santa, one for each child
Thompson Candy Company, 4 1/8 inches tall (1.75 oz),
Russell Stover Candies, 4 1/2 inches tall (1.75 oz),
Thompson Candy Company, 5 1/2 inches tall (3 oz)
- Miter pattern cut out of card stock (increase or decrease pattern, if necessary, so it fits your chocolate Santas) If you print page 2 on card stock the pattern won't need to be transferred
- Gold metallic chenille stems
- 7 1/2 -inch piece for smaller Santa, 8 1/2 -inch for larger
- Red metallic foil card stock (sometimes called metallic foil board) or metallic foil paper
- Cut a rectangle for each child, 5x3-inches for smaller miter, 6x3-inches for larger
- Metallic cross stickers
Gold crosses (Dayspring) available from Northwestern Publishing House, 32/package
Miniature embossed cross stickers from Standard Publishing, 216/package, also available from Northwestern Publishing House

EQUIPMENT

- Pencils
- Scissors
- Mini stapler, fastens the miter more securely than gluing
- Mini glue dots or tacky glue

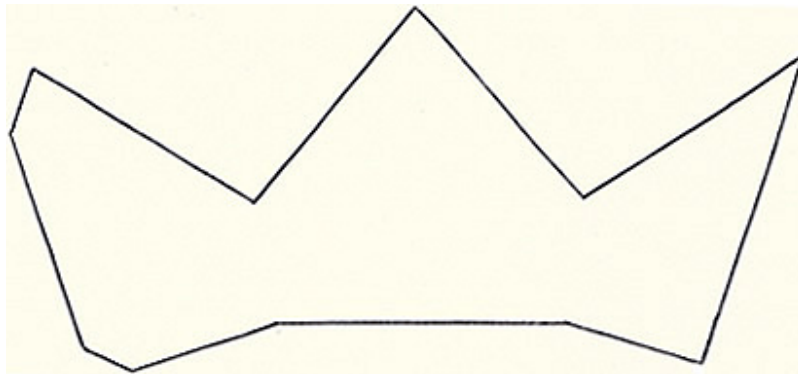

DIRECTIONS

1. Draw around miter pattern on wrong side of red card
2. Cut out miter
3. Fold miter at sides 4. Staple back together, matching point and lower edges 4. Bend gold metallic chenille stem piece into a crozier
4. Place miter on head; secure with a bit of glue
5. Use a blob of tacky glue to attach bishop's crozier/staff onto the figure's left hand

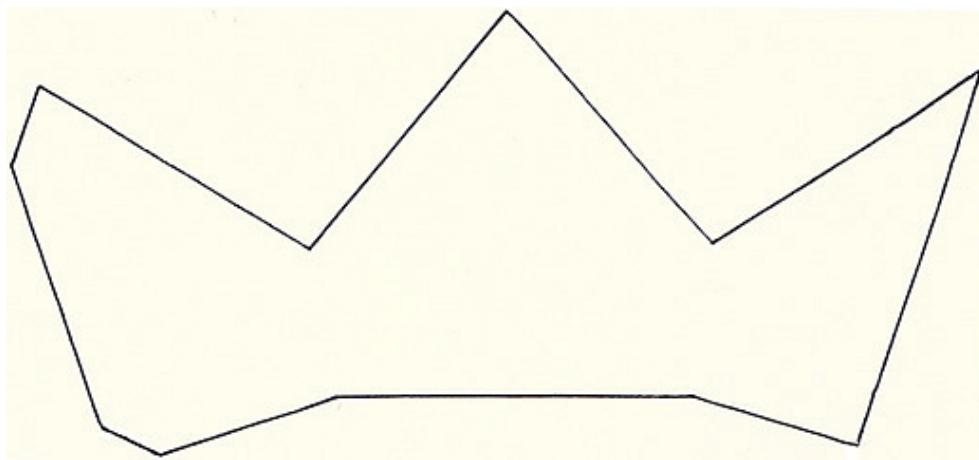

Voila! Santa is now the real St. Nicholas!
