

2

Nicholas was generous and made good use of his riches, always helping those in need. One day he heard about a man who was in despair . . .